

Forrest PS Programme of Inquiry 2020

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
P	How we express ourselves: Language follows patterns and conventions										Who we are: Personal characteristics develop and grow over time										How the world works: Our natural world sparks curiosity and wonder										How we organise ourselves: Actions can support a sustainable environment
K	How we organise ourselves: The use of systems keeps us safe										Where we are in place and time: History and culture can be shared										How the world works: Experimenting answers questions										How we express ourselves: Experiences inspire creativity
1	How we organise ourselves: Decisions influence wellbeing					Where we are in place and time: Lifestyles change with time					How the world works: Structures are developed in response to the environment					How we express ourselves: Communication occurs through the arts					Sharing the planet: The consequences of human choices					Who we are: Beliefs and values can be expressed through stories
2	How we express ourselves: Inspiration for creative expression may be different					Sharing the planet: Choices impact health					How we organise ourselves: Systems are designed in response to human needs					How the world works: The world is in a constant state of change					Where we are in place and time: Connections to heritage shape society					Who we are: Understanding our differences helps us recognise and value our similarities
3	Sharing the planet: Communities rely on responsible citizenship					Who we are: Personal decisions impact health					Where we are in time and place: The past connects to the present					How the world works: Theories are tested through process and reasoning					How we express ourselves: Creativity is acquired through discovery					How we organise ourselves: Choices in how information is shared and interpreted has consequences
4	Who we are: The impact of our actions on systems of the body					How we organise ourselves: Organisations can enhance or suppress human rights					Where we are in time and place: The causes and effects of exploration					How the world works: Knowledge transforms society					Sharing the planet: Competition and survival in the natural world					How we express ourselves: Creativity as an expression of culture
5	Who we are: Year long Unit Understanding grows from experience					Sharing the planet: Environmental factors influence management					Where we are in time and place: The quest for prosperity stimulates movement					How the world works: Understanding principles enables problem solving					How we organise ourselves: Power coincides with responsibility					How we express ourselves: Student central idea
6	Who we are: Growth is change					How we organise ourselves: Systems are developed in response to needs					How we express ourselves: Creative use of communication enables innovation and diversification.					How the world works: Expertise and awareness can support informed decisions					Sharing the planet: EXHIBITION					Where we are in time and place: Humans respond to diversity in different ways

--	--	--	--	--	--	--